ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
Mrs. Alshire, wife of Gen. J. B. Alshire, U. S. army, announces the betrothal of her daughter, Dorothy, to Ensign Alexander Gilchrist Hatch, U. S. N.

The announcement of Miss Alshire's and Mr. Hatch's betrothal is very pleasing to their large circle of friends. Mr. Hatch is the son of Mr. Francis M. Hatch, grandson of the late Col. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes and a brother of Miss Harriet Hatch. The Alshires are among the best known families in the army and have a high position.

J. MORTON RIGGS GIVES DINNER AT RATHSKELLER

J. Morton Riggs entertained 15 guests at a dinner Monday night at the Alexander Young hotel rathskeller in honor of Mrs. Riggs' birthday. The table was prettily decorated in American Beauty roses, violets, sweet peas and smilax. Manager Mayo of the rathskeller, who arranged the dinner, had place cards of a neat design at each place.

Following the dinner the members of the party adjourned to the roof where dancing was enjoyed. During the evening the pianist played "I Love You California," written by E. B. Silverwood, one of the members of the party.

Mrs. Riggs received a number of beautiful presents from members of the party, the ladies presenting her with a beautiful loving cup. The entire party visited the volcano together, and the dinner of Monday evening was but one of many given by Mrs. Riggs.

Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Arlyn McKillop of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Evans of London, Mrs. Alma Patterson of New York, Mrs. L. L. Harris of Providence, Miss Georgia Archer of New York, Mr. and Mrs. James McCandless of Honolulu, F. B. Silverwood of Los Angeles, H. Hudson of New York, A. Corbin of New York, Guy Buttolph of Honolulu and Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs.

CENTRAL UNION RECEPTION

Tomorrow afternoon, February 8, at 2 o'clock will be held the first social affair of the new year under the auspices of the Women's Society of Central Union church, the affair to take the nature of an informal reception and to take place in the parish house. Guests of compliment of the afternoon will be Mrs. Edwin Benner, the new president; Mrs. John Trenholm Warren, retiring president, and Mrs. Arthur L. Andrews, for three years a president of the society, who has recently returned from an extended Eastern trip of many months duration. Assisting these women in greeting the guests will be the women of the new executive board, and it is hoped that the attendance will be large. Tourists and visitors from the other islands are always made especially welcome at these affairs, while the latch string is always out for any friends of the church or congregation. Delicious refreshments will be served during the afternoon and there

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR HERE

Mrs. Aurelia Reinhardt, president of Mills College, comes to Honolulu for a visit during the month of February.

Mrs. Reinhardt is a woman of splendid mentality and poise.

Miss Helen Kimball, a graduate of Mills, writes most interestingly of Mrs. Reinhardt and extracts from her letter tell of Mrs. Reinhardt as a woman and a president. Miss Kimball says: "I want to send you just a word about a guest who will visit your beautiful island, Mrs. Aurelia Reinhardt, president of Mills College."

"Mrs. Reinhardt will spend the month of February with you and if Hawaii is as kind to all as it was to me she will return to California with a picture in life that will not fade. The picture might be titled 'The Islands of Inspiration.'"

"It was in Honolulu that Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Mills visited a college for girls. No doubt on the campus of Punahou they planned and planned again and again of some time, somewhere founding a college for women."

"Days have passed since their days-of growth and preparedness, and today the vision dreamed on the campus of Punahou is a reality in California, Honolulu should know our president."

"Mrs. Reinhardt is a woman of wide experience in the educational world, one that has a wide outlook into the future. Since she has assumed the presidency of Mills College there have been marked changes and we have only begun to realize our possibilities. I want you all to know the great possibilities from our president; her vision of today growing into the reality of tomorrow. They will become realities because already the women of California are becoming keenly interested in the Western woman's college of California."

"Mrs. Robert Burdette of Pasadena has become one of our trustees—this fact foretells that our strongest women are coming to the support of our college in the West, and when we enlist the women of such high standing we begin to realize and see the near approach of a dream come true."

"May we enlist your interests, the interests of the editor of the Star-

Bulletin, who was so exceptionally kind in his consideration of my thoughts while I was in Honolulu, to become one of the many who will meet and know Mrs. Reinhardt? She is worth knowing."

"My memories of Honolulu are like inspirations and I would I could be with you again. Aloha."

The Mills Club of Honolulu has many pleasant affairs arranged for this distinguished woman and no one comes to Honolulu more assured of a sincere and genuine aloha than does Mrs. Reinhardt. She will be at the Pleasanton during her visit in Honolulu.

A POPULAR COUPLE DEPART

On the transport leaving here Sunday were Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Walker Atkinson. Col. Atkinson's tour of service here is up. No more popular army couple have been here than this charming pair. Col. Atkinson was liked by everyone in Honolulu who came in contact with this splendid soldier of the U. S. Army. Mrs. Atkinson made for herself a very enviable niche in the social life of Honolulu. She is a Southern woman who has all of the grace and charm that belong to the South.

HORN-CLINTON

At Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell's quarters at Fort Shafter on Saturday last occurred the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Isabel Clinton, and Col. Tiemann N. Horn of the 1st Field Artillery, Schofield Barracks, Chaplain Ignatius Fealy performed the marriage ceremony and the bride's parents were the witnesses.

Col. and Mrs. Horn left immediately for the volcano, where they plan to remain two weeks on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Horn is a very strikingly handsome woman and a popular one.

GAIETY AT THE PLEASANTON

The dining room of the Pleasanton Hotel was very gay last Tuesday week. The arrival of steamers from the mainland brought out a larger company than usual. The dining room was prettily decorated in pale-tinted asters and pale shades were used over the lighted candles. The Correll trio alternated with "Dude" Miller's Hawaiian Glee Club and dancing after dinner was kept up until long past midnight.

The hotel is filled with wealthy tourists and the handsome gowns of the women and the sparkle of jewels made a pretty scene.

Some among those who entertained were Mr. William Johnson, with Mr. C. Waterman as the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hughitt had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Lochat and Mrs. Lavelle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bivin had as their guest Mr. D. M. McAvoy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson had as their guests Capt. and Mrs. George L. Converse, Mrs. David Starr and Mr. Orion Starr.

Mr. Denis had as his guests Mrs. True, Miss Ann True and Mrs. Desha. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Key and Mr. and Mrs. von Damm were noticed in the room.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Devy had as their guest Mrs. C. M. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Clark had dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bricker had as their guests Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Minor.

Mr. and Mrs. Payton and Mr. E. M. Payton had several guests.

Miss Helen McCarthy had as her guests Mrs. E. L. Edwards, Miss Caroline Churchman and Mrs. E. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosenstein entertained Miss Schanehalt.

NOTED SOPRANO IS COMING

Madame D'Alma Chandler, the noted soprano, will arrive here February 27. Madame Chandler will remain in Honolulu until March 14 and give two concerts at the Opera House.

Madame Chandler has had the honor of appearing by special request at Governor and Mrs. Dix' musicale at the executive mansion, Albany, N. Y., also by special invitation of Governor R. H. Post at San Juan, Porto Rico. She has also appeared as prima donna in opera in Milan, Turin, Porto Maurizio, Naples, Paris, Berlin, London, Copenhagen and other cities.

The pianist and accompanist will be Fritz Scavenius. Subscription for the two concerts opened today, February 7, at the Territorial Messenger Office, telephone 3461.

LEAH HOME BENEFIT CONCERT

The benefit concert that will take place next Saturday evening at the Moana Hotel gives promise of being an artistic event of much interest. All three soloists have appeared before Honolulu audiences and have always been greeted with pleasure. The tickets are for sale at the hotels and Promotion Committee rooms. The cause—that of raising funds for Leah Home—is one that appeals to the best in us all, and there is no doubt that the dining room at the hotel will be taxed to its limit on Saturday evening.

After the program is finished dancing will be an added feature. Mr. and Mrs. Monjo will give several exhibition dances.

A RECEPTION HONORING MR. AND MRS. B. K. PITMAN

This afternoon at Lanikaia Mrs. Emma Nakulua will be hostess at a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin K. Pitman of Boston.

Mr. Pitman is a son of whom Hawaii is justly proud, for he represents all that is best of his race. It is 50 years since he left here and he finds many changes in the land of his birth. Mr. and Mrs. Pitman have been greatly entertained here, all wishing to give them the welcome of Hawaiian hospitality. They plan to leave at the end of February and go home to Boston.

The guests at the reception today will represent Hawaii 50 years ago, and it will be a happy reunion of old friends.

WELCOME FOR DR. REINHARDT

At 3:30 Thursday afternoon Dr. Reinhardt, president of Mills College, and Miss Janet Haight of the Mills Alumnae Association, will be welcomed by the Mills Club of Honolulu at the home of Mrs. C. H. Kuezel, 1507 Alexander street.

To this informal reception and welcome to Honolulu of Dr. Reinhardt and Miss Haight an invitation is extended to all former students of Mills College, whether residents of Honolulu or visitors here. An invitation is extended likewise to all women who have had daughters at Mills or are expecting to send their daughters there, as well as to the daughters themselves.

Dr. Reinhardt will have much of interest to tell the club, both of Mills College of today and of her hopes and plans for its future advancement and upbuilding.

A LUAU OF UNIQUE INTEREST

The management of the Colonial is giving a luau and exhibition hula on Saturday of this week at the Colonial Hotel, on Emma street. Every bit of the food will be prepared and cooked on the grounds, insuring a feast of the best. A corps of efficient Hawaiian cooks who are experts in their line will serve. Miss Johnson will also give the luau her personal supervision. It should be a rare treat for the hundreds of tourists who are at present in town. One of the most attractive features will be the facilities for seeing the food in the "kitchens" and then seeing it taken out. The Hawaiian band will play during the feast hours, from 1 until 3. If the weather is fine the luau will be served under the huge monkey-pod trees and if the weather be inclement the large lanai will be used.

"Where can we get a Hawaiian feast?" is almost the first question one hears from the traveler, and the affair Saturday is an answer. Tickets may be had at either the Promotion Committee rooms or at the Territorial Messenger office.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AT THE PLEASANTON

The Pleasanton hotel is quite a center for social activity now. Dances are on twice a week. Last evening Miss C. C. Pearson sang for the guests after dinner on the lanai, rendering several very pleasing numbers. She is possessed of a voice of real charm and pleased her listeners greatly. The Correll trio continues to charm for it plays beautifully. This evening an invitation dance will be given by the management.

A DANCING PARTY THIS EVENING

The following card of invitation from the Pleasanton hotel tells of the dance there this evening. About 150 guests are expected. A large number of private dinners are planned for this evening.

"The management of the Pleasanton hotel requests the pleasure of your company at a dance on Wednesday, February 7, at 8 o'clock."

MISS LAURA LOW COMPLETED

Miss Laura Low was the honor-guest at a large dancing party on Tuesday evening at the Waialeale home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay. About a hundred guests were in attendance.

COMING TO HONOLULU

Mr. and Mrs. John D. McGilvray are planning a trip to Honolulu. They will sail on February 12 on the Great Northern.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey left on today's steamer for a six months' stay away. Mrs. Lowrey is one of the foremost women in Honolulu today. For the past five years her work has been given to the Outdoor Circle. It started with seven members and today proudly claims over five hundred members. She has been a fearless, just and impartial president and is beloved by the clubs as a whole and individually by its members. As a member of the city planning commission her stand has always been on the side of right and fairness, absolutely loyal to the work.

No doubt she will be called upon wherever she goes to tell of Honolulu and as she is such a splendid public speaker Honolulu is in good hands. Later on Mr. Lowrey will go to San Francisco, when they will tour the states leisurely before returning home.

Madame Harriet Avery Strakosch, who is sojourning at the Young Hotel for several weeks, was the prima donna with the Boston Ideal Opera Company, American Opera Company, Clara Louise Kellogg Opera Company, also Strakosch Opera Company, singing the principal soprano roles in all the modern grand operas.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Koster of San Francisco, who have been here on a visit, left for their home today. Mr. Koster is president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. They were widely entertained during their stay here, and he spoke forcefully on several occasions.

Mrs. Della Nuttall of London is a guest at the Davenport. Mrs. Nuttall is a brilliant woman who has lectured before large audiences wherever she has visited. She is connected with the museum of Harvard and hopes are that she will be able to lecture here.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan left today for the mainland after three months here. Miss Laura Low accompanied them and will make her home with them for a year, studying music under the careful direction of competent teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hind and their daughter, Miss Maud Hind, are the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hind at their Green street home.
